

Hello! Were the first words of Her Excellency Sharon and/or Madame Sharon after an emotional period of Cameroon's instability slowly passed and she saw a glimpse of His Excellency Frank Emmanuel Biya waving to the crowd as she stood barefoot amongst Cameroonians to greet the man they had wished for years to see elected as President over Cameroun who was none other than; Mr. Frank Emannuel Biya at the time. Her Excellency Sharon thought about the meaning of the middle name of the future elected President of Cameroon Mr.Frank Biya in which his middle name is Emmanuel; pronounced fully His Excellency Frank Emmanuel Biya meaning God who is with us who is Emmanuel, to explain further the name Emmanuel biblically meaning God with us as a people and a nation! Yes, Madam Sharon felt God with her when His Excellency Frank waived to greet fellow Cameroonians in a small pavilion. They whispered is it he, and could it be? And it was! A Cameroonian, Madame Sharon, had traveled to Ghana in her heart and ethnicity earlier that year on her own two legs to escape confusion during the clashes and genocide in Cameroon as she had a trace of the Ghanaian heritage through marriage and distant relatives who were based in Ghana at the time protected and kept it alive. But the Cameroonian quality of Her Excellency Sharon was still there even after Her Excellency Sharon's Ghanaian privilege was granted and even after she Madame Sharon's Ghanaian partial inheritance was approved. So, in essence, Madame Sharon was proud to see the whole political issue come to light in Cameroon as she takes her place next to His Excellency Frank Biya in the Cameroonian presidency as the new wife of His Excellency Frank Emmanuel Biya. Yes, God willing, as His Excellency Frank Biya takes office as the next President of Cameroon, it will be alongside Madam Sharon his new Cameroonian wife as the next turning point of the Cameroonian presidency approaches with a new change and a new balance of power.
